Richmond, the American International University in London

We are a private independent American university accredited in the United States by the Commission on Higher Education of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools. We are also accredited in the UK by the British Accreditation Council for Independent Further and Higher Education.

The University's academic program, which encompasses business, communications, international relations, journalism and the arts, reflects the American tradition of broad-based core studies. Living and studying together, our students from over 100 countries are ready for a world where the ability to communicate effectively across national and cultural boundaries is as valuable as traditional academic achievement. A Richmond education offers a global perspective. It examines the patterns of similarities and differences between cultures and provides students with an intercultural focus.
