Graduate Programs 2010/2011 Academic Year

MA in International Relations Financial Information

COURSE FEES

(valid from the beginning of September 2010 to the end of August 2011)

Full Program

Graduate Studies in MA International Relations	£11,000.00
--	------------

Notes on payment

1. These charges are for the full academic year and are payable in three equal instalments, due 1 August for the Fall semester, 1 December for the following Spring semester and 1 May for the Summer semester.
2. Payment plans are available (at a charge). Arrangements must be made in advance of the due date with the Student Account Manager.
3. A non-refundable £50 application fee is required with all applications.
4. A confirmation deposit of £1,000 is required of all new students. If a student fails to enroll, the deposit is non-refundable and non-transferable. If a student enrolls £500 becomes a security deposit which is refundable when the student graduates or withdraws from the University provided the student's account is clear of any charges for damages or unpaid fees. The remaining £500 is offset against the first payment for tuition. Any security deposits not claimed one semester after the student has last attended the University, will be treated as having been donated to the University.

Accommodation

The University provides housing for graduate students in single or double rooms on a limited, first-come, first-served basis. The cost does not include meals.* A non-refundable £1,000.00 housing deposit is required on booking. Further information on housing can be obtained from the Graduate Admissions Office.

* Meals can be purchased on a pay as you go system.

2. LATE PAYMENT FEES

A penalty will be charged if fees are received late. Transcripts will not be released until fees are paid in full. If any unpaid fees are referred to a debt collection agency then a further late payment penalty will be added to the total debt.

3. WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS

Refunds will only be given for documented visa denials, or other exceptional circumstances at the discretion of the University.

4. FEES

Fees for students include activities, insurance and information technology. Insurance covers personal possessions, an element of medical insurance is also provided and tuition refund in the event of protracted physical illness. The extent of the coverage is shown on the insurance leaflet which is available from the Graduate Admissions Office.

5. TUITION

The full program fee, as stated on the reverse, covers tuition only and does not include the cost of a student's personal expenses such as accommodation, food and text books.
