The University's refund policy can also be viewed in the University's catalog

(<http://www.richmond.ac.uk/content/academic-schools/catalogues/catalog-sections.aspx>)

Pages 24-25

- Cost of Attendance

This information is available in the tuition fees section of the Admissions page

(<http://www.richmond.ac.uk/content/admissions/tuition-fees.aspx>)

- Private Education Loans Disclosures

Richmond does not have a preferred private lender list, and does not endorse a specific private lender. The terms/conditions of Title IV loans may be more favourable than private education loans.

- Transfer of credit policies

The administration of Transfer credits is the responsibility of the Academic Registry department.

- Academic Program Disclosure

Information regarding Richmond's academic programs is available on the University's website by following the Undergraduate and Postgraduate links

- Disability policy

The University's disability policy is available through the Student Affairs page:
(<http://www.richmond.ac.uk/content/student-affairs/students-with-disabilities.aspx>)

- Drug-Related Offences

It is important to note that Federal regulations prohibits Title IV assistance to students convicted (State or Federal) of drug-related offences; therefore a student convicted of drug-related offences will lose his/her Title IV loan eligibility.

- Copyright Infringement

The University has signed up to the Copyright Licensing Agency (CLA) Comprehensive Higher Education Photocopying, Scanning and Digital Material Re-use Licence (CLA Licence).
