Course Description:

The emphasis of this course is on the development of students' academic writing skills. Students review the grammatical and syntactic structures that underlie clear, academic prose. They are given practice in structuring an essay in order to guide the reader. They use reading skills learnt in EAP 3260 to extract information from reading materials, drawn from a wide range of sources, in order to inform and give substance to their own written work. They are required to respond to the key terms in essay questions and implement the appropriate rhetorical model (comparison/contrast etc.) in order to fully address the task. Students must obtain a minimum grade of C on this course and EAP 3255 and EAP 3260 in order to be able to progress to ARW 3195, Principles of Academic Writing.

Prerequisites: None

Aims and Objectives:

The principal objective of this course is to enable students to develop the writing skills needed for university-level work. The key aims are to enable students to use clear and accurate expression, to develop organizational skills in writing and to use their own ideas and the ideas of others as a stimulus for the production of clearly written essays.

Programme Outcomes :
