Course Description:

This course explores a variety of city experiences as reflected in fiction and film. These representations are placed in two contexts, the historical and the imaginative. Particular stress is laid on the city as a site of intercultural experience as well as on the cultural contrasts and comparisons between particular cities. Drawing on the students' own international variety of experience, the course offers the opportunity for some creative work on these topics in addition to their academic writing.

Prerequisites: None

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide a broad historical overview of the development of the city, especially since the 19th century;
- To introduce students to some of the key ideas about the city from different disciplinary angles;
- To highlight the role of the imagination and the diverse experiences of cities through a variety of literary texts and films;
- To provide students with a framework for understanding cultural difference and diversity as represented in narratives of the urban imagination.

Programme Outcomes :

3A(i); 3B(i); 3C(i); 3D(i)

A detailed list of the programme outcomes are found in the Programme Specification. This is located at the Departmental/Schools page of the portal.
