Course Description:

Students will complete at least 6 weeks of full time work or the equivalent part-time within an organization to enable participation in graduate level experiential learning and so develop hands-on skills and professional experience which will prepare students for work in a range of arts and creative cultural industries. Placements are supervised, career-related work experiences combined with reflective, academic study that help students 'learn by doing'. During the internship, the staff of the Internship Office and a faculty supervisor work closely with each student and the organization to ensure that the placement is a successful one.

Prerequisites:

MA Art History and Visual Culture students only. Students not taking the 4/20 credit internship may opt to take the 12/60 credit Extended Professional Research Project.

Aims and Objectives:

- To provide students with an opportunity to participate in graduate-level experiential learning
- To develop the hands-on skills needed for a particular professional environment
- To prepare students for work in a range of arts and creative cultural industries
- To reflect upon work experience and possible future career paths
- To consider the application of learned academic knowledge within a professional context
- To develop students' professional communication skills, including written and oral communication

Programme Outcomes:

At the end of this course, the students will have achieved the following programme outcomes: A7, B4, B5, B6

Assessment:

This course conforms to the Richmond University Standard Assessment Norms approved at Academic Board and are located at <https://www.richmond.ac.uk/university-policies>.

Teaching Methodology:

‘Experiential Learning involves direct encounter with the phenomena or discipline being studied and the learning is achieved through reflection upon the everyday experiences’ (Houle 1980). The Internship program utilizes these ideas and assists student with the process of self-learning support by a faculty supervisor. Faculty supervision will be in a combination of meetings, correspondence through email, and assessment of written work.
