Course description

For students working independently on their Master's extended professional research project. The extended professional research project (equivalent to 15,000 words) encourages students to study intensively a topic agreed with a supervisor, and so develop skills and experience which can be applied in work placements or further graduate work. Students apply their knowledge from across the fall and spring semesters to researching and developing a project, which may relate to the internship. This course is comprised of intensive and regular meetings on a group and one-to-one (by appointment) basis with a project supervisor to discuss the progress of research, development and writing.

Pre-requisites:

MA Creative Industries: Performing Arts Management students only

Aims and objectives:

- For the supervisor to guide the student, as a junior research colleague, through the research, writing and production of an MA level professional research project of 15,000 words (or the equivalent of)
